

RUBY

Ruby is one of our heaviest linen fabrics on double width, beautiful crinkled and a shifting surface.

This article is washed to give it a unique look, it has wrinkles and marks. It will stretch and/or contract depending on humidity, dryness and temperature. The linen yarn can be irregular with slobbs and knots depending on the natural character of the linen fiber.

Use the fabric's width as the curtain's width for the best drape and to avoid a visible folding mark.

Please be aware that screen colours, printer colours and fabric dye batches may vary.
