

RIVA

Riva is a beautifully textured linen fabric with a soft, slightly rustic character and a generous double width, making it ideal for creating heavy drapes and decorative applications. Its natural charm lies in the inherent qualities of the linen fibre, which features subtle irregularities that contribute to its organic and tactile appeal.

This article will stretch/and/or contract depending on the natural character of the fibre. The linen fibre is naturally uneven with slubs appearing giving a rustic effect.

Please be aware that screen colours, printer colours and fabric dye batches may vary.
